From the desk of Educational Advisor!!!

Moral values are interwoven in all aspects of teaching: in the curriculum, in the school culture, and as moral examples in teachers' behavior. Working with values is an essential part of teaching. Educating students to become teachers requires to learn how values are embedded in education, Values are embedded in educational practices, in curriculum materials and in discourses in school. Values are the ideological flavor of teaching. Values can be taught explicitly, but values are always interwoven in regular teaching practices. Sometimes these hidden values become consciously when teachers reflect on their educational practice. But generally, the values remain hidden and do their work and influence the identity development of students.

The teachers play an important role in moral education, and there is a growing body of work that focuses on the education and professional development of teachers themselves. Students should according to Buzzeli and Johnston be invited into an apprenticeship in these moral sensibilities and to examine, test, and reformulate their beliefs and personal philosophies. When it comes to methods, students should learn how methods and content influence the growth and development of individuals in a moral sense, in what they learn about themselves and their relationship with the world, and in the differences between learners in this process of meaning making. When students enter classrooms during their field experience or student teaching practice, they become moral agents in the lives of the children in those classrooms. They need to develop an awareness of the moral significance and moral meanings of policies, practices, routines, and of the rituals of the classroom and the school.

There is no strong empirical base for moral education in teacher education. Most of the work that has been conducted has focused on pedagogical goals and on formulating the consequences of research for educating prospective teachers in teacher education. We think it is necessary to develop a multi perspective view on moral values in teacher education. It can help to make both the theory and the practice more suitable to support students in their transition towards becoming teachers.

EDITORIAL DESK

I extend my warm gratitude to all my readers

It gives me immense pleasure to introduce the 2nd tri monthly newsletter. I believe 'success comes to those who work hard and stays with those, who don't rest on the laurels of the past.' We live today in the world that is so very different from the one grew up in, the one we were educated in. The world today is changing at such an accelerated rate and we as educators need to pause and reflect on the entire system of education. Aristotle once said that "Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all."

As we all know, a magazine mirrors a school's aims and objectives. It also highlights events, activities and achievements of students. I do hope the magazine encourages many more students to use it as a platform to express their creativity.

Once again, we express gratitude to the Management, Trustees, the Principal, Vice- principal, Educational advisor and last but not the least, our ever supporting colleagues.

TEACHER'S CORNER

IS DEARTH OF EXPERIENCED AND QUALIFIED TEACHERS LEADING TO THE DARK FUTURE OF ITS CITIZEN?

Yes, dearth of experienced and qualified teachers in our country can lead to the dark future of its citizen because the teachers are the pillar of society to educate and mould the future citizens of a country. Through their intelligence, patience and wisdom they attempt to not only identify the learner's intellect and aptitude but also create well round personality .Teachers have great responsibilities with regards to the future of the students.

Only an experienced, deserving and qualified person should be chosen as a teacher and teacher should also give respect to their work so that they can lead their students on the right path and show them the light and pull them from darkness to light.

Now a day's teacher's job has become more challengeable due to technological developments. Teacher should not only teach the subject knowledge rather they should act as the counselor, motivator and guide. To accomplish all the goals and fulfill responsibilities only the experienced and qualified teacher is needed.

Teaching profession is an art and science so teacher plays an important role to create well round personality. We get many things through our education, like one is information and the other is formation. There is a final outcome of education is called transformation. Those who are properly educated will bring a change in both the lives of the students and the society itself.

Arunana Nagapure
(Faculty of Maths)

“Education should be imparted with a view to the type of society that we wish to build.”

– Sh. Pranab Mukherjee

Our System of education has three aspects. It leads to development of mind, body and soul.

An education should be such which enables today's students to prepare themselves for how to make living in future and also, to teach them how to live.

Teachers who add value to student's learning are said to be effective teachers. They don't make students study but they make them learn.

Experience and Qualification both are necessary, but does that really proves to be the key of effective learning? No, I don't think so.

Education in my view has always been a joint responsibility for teacher, student, parents and society. In order to make student a better citizen, a teacher can have strong credentials, should be creative, or are well-liked by students, parents, and their colleagues. All of these qualities have their merits. But most policymakers and school leaders would describe a “good” teacher as an effective one: someone who gets students to learn what they are expected to learn or more.

Experience and qualification alone can't lead student towards the high-quality future. It takes many more qualities which a teacher should consist in order to make the learning permanent like: the content knowledge, confidence, teaching style, classroom management, strong rapport with students etc.

The National Youth Policy, 2014 policy seeks to empower youth of the country to achieve their full potential. The main objectives of the policy are to: (i) to create a productive workforce that can make a sustainable contribution to India's economic development; (ii) develop a strong and healthy generation equipped to take on future challenges; (iii) instill social values and promote community service to build national ownership; (iv) facilitate participation and civic engagement at levels of governance; and (v) support youth at risk and create equitable opportunity for all disadvantaged and marginalized youth. The priority areas of NYP 2014 include: education, employment and skill development, entrepreneurship, health and healthy lifestyles, sports, promotion of social values, community engagement, participation in politics and governance, youth engagement, inclusion and social justice. In the National Youth Policy, 2014 document, the youth age-group is defined as 15-29 years.

Along with teacher, a student should also be ready to learn. No matter how highly qualified and experienced a teacher is, if the student is not ready to learn then the qualification and experience does not work. Student's key to success is his/ her own readiness to learn and also the proper guidance from teacher and the facilities made available.

The world today faces challenges of violence, terrorism, intolerance and environmental degradation. Apart from content knowledge, and vocational training, the values of truth, tolerance, integrity, secularism and inclusiveness need to be imparted to our children to make the world a safer and better place to live in.

क्या प्रशिक्षित और अनुभवी शिक्षकों की कमी हमारे देश के नागरिकों का भविष्य प्रभावित कर रही है?

शिक्षक को समाज की रीढ़ की हड्डी कहा गया है। जैसे शरीर को मजबूत और सुचारु रूप से चलाने के लिए रीढ़ की हड्डी का शरीर में स्तम्भों के रूप में अत्यंत महत्व है, वही प्रकार एक स्वस्थ और सुदृढ़ समाज की रचना भी एक सुयोग्य शिक्षक द्वारा ही संभव है।

आज हमारे देश में शिक्षकों की कमी नहीं है, परन्तु योग्य एवं कुशल शिक्षक बहुत कम हैं, जो हमारे अटके हुए जीवनकों को सही मार्ग दर्शन दे सकें। उनकी कमी के कारण ही देश का भविष्य संभ्रमण हो गया है। कुछ जगहों पर तो ये दावा है कि युवापीढ़ी को सही गलत में फँक बताने वाला सही मार्गदर्शक का मिलने के कारण उनके भविष्य के साथ-साथ देश का भविष्य भी गँव में जा रहा है। देश के भविष्य को उन्नत एवं उज्ज्वल बनाने के लिए अनुभवी एवं प्रशिक्षित शिक्षकों की संख्या बढ़ानी होगी। उनके अनुभव और ज्ञान का सही भागदान करते हुए देश के नागरिकों का भविष्य उज्ज्वल किया जा सकता है।

Topic: MY FIRST GRADE TEACHER

Ashritha Sunil of V-A says...

I celebrated my birthday in Kerala. I and my grandfather decorated the house with balloons and ribbons. "HAPPY BIRTHDAY ASHRITHA" was written on the cake. All were gathered in my house to celebrate my birthday except my father. He was in Gujarat due to some official work. Everyone made me happy by presenting many gifts and I enjoyed a lot on that day, but I really missed my papa...

Karishma Dhankar of IV-A says...

During my childhood, birthdays were the most important event in our life that we all used to celebrate with great zeal. I want to share my 7th year birthday. The day before; I was worried as I misplaced one of my favourite dolls. I became very upset and I couldn't enjoy my birthday preparations. Somehow I dressed up on the day and I felt so happy that my favourite doll was on top of my birthday cake. It was one of my memorable birthdays I ever had before.

Kapil Budhani of VI-B says...

My birthday was on 13th January. It was one of my best birthdays. On that day my parents had arranged a birthday party. I invited my friends and my relatives. We ordered for some snacks and my mother prepared gulab jamun for them. I got many gifts. My parents gifted me a cycle on my birthday. It was a very joyful day and I enjoyed a lot with my friends.

Sreepriya Nair of III-C says...

Birthdays are usually the occasions for rejoicing and enjoying. Relatives and friends gather on the occasion and wish many happy returns of the day and offer their blessings. They bring with them beautiful presents also.

My birthday came on 11th April. I invited a number of my friends to the birthday feast which my parents had arranged. The time of the function was six in the evening. We were all busy in making arrangements. In the evening, near about 4'0 clock guests began to arrive, my parents received them. At 6'0 clock I cut my birthday cake and all enjoyed the birthday party. The day was full of great excitements.

Is Division of small states viable for the country's development?

Anushree Patra of 10th B says...

When we travel through the history of India we acknowledge that before the arrival of Britishers, India was all about small kingdoms scattered all around ruled by kings and rulers. After Independence, we formed a single country by uniting different Kingdoms and provinces, which is now referred as 'States'. Division of states was mainly based on languages.

Every state of India has a unique style, tradition. The cultures practiced by all the states differ from one-another. Division of states results to the increase in diversity. India is well known for its Diversity.

It becomes easy to administer when states are divided. For example; Telengana, India's 29th state, came into being on 2nd June 2014. Division does not affect the idea of unity of the country.

Although we have different cultures, diverse traditions, various religions we are not divided but one and united. Division of states aware us about the uniqueness possessed by every small part of our country 'India'.

Rishabh Thakur of X-A says...

Division of the country into small states is a complex topic to understand. There is no administrative rationale, no economic justification, no compelling political logics and not even linguistic or cultural framework for big blocked state. In large states there are often too many sub-regional disparities that get glossed over by treating the state as sacred unit. But, more state means more barriers for creating an integrated market.

Less compelling and dividing of larger unit into equal sub units may help in higher state wise production and integrated solutions for increasing Indian Economy. Moreover, dividing states may cost the Government more in terms of capital.

Puneet Jeswani of XI Science says...

According to the view the division of states is not a good proposal but this affects the unity of the country in both negative and positive way. As a coin has two faces similarly it affects the politics in both negative and positive way.

Some states were created to recognize different cultures. It also undermines the unity of nation currently. States were separated due to the majoritarianism as they said that their culture was not identified and preserved. They felt they were minor and were neglected so they demanded for a separate state.

So, the demand of a different state is not good as it affects the unity of nation. And India is a federal country it should not walk on such path.

Ankush Chirimar of X-A says ...

Creation of small states is need of the hour for India. Small states mean better administration, better Government, participation of common man in the administration. Creation of small state is one of the answers to reduce corruption or at least corruption amount.

In India, when Congress declared that a new state Telengana will be created from Andhra Pradesh, everyone in India started discussing about the creation of small state is good or bad for India? Many Indians opposed this creation of small states in India by giving many reasons. But still to say and insist that creation of small state is good for India.

In near future when states will become rich, there is a possibility and chance that these big states will make their police force very strong and will demand the independence from India. When we divided India on the basis of language we made mistake, and today you may not agree with me, but when states will make progress and will make money and other states will not make money, these money making states will demand the independence and because of finance and big nature of state, they will do this very easily by purchasing ammunition from China.

So, remember big states will divide the India in future not the small states. A small state is the only one solution which can keep us integrated. As India is divided on the basis of language, in one state all same language speaking population is staying which encourages more love for state.

If big state means progress to some people; then why India has not made progress like America, Hongkong, Germany, France or England. America and Hongkong both were ruled by England just like India. This shows that there is no guarantee that big state will make progress or small state. Remember it does not matter whether a state is small or big, what is most important is who is our law maker and how honest he is with his job and nation. If the law maker is good he can take the small state to such heights that the small nation can rule the world.

Small states will give the chance to common people to know and understand how the chief minister and their administration are working. Small state will also give chance to participate in the administration of Government. With small states there are unlimited benefits and with big states benefits are comparatively less. Let's hope that in near future States Reorganization Commission will not give more importance to language when dividing or creating new states. States should be created only after consultation with scientists, engineers and taking consideration of geographic area and advantages.

मधुर वाणी का महत्व

“ऐसी वाणी बोलिए, मनका आपा खोए ।

औरन को शीतल करे, आपहुं शीतल होय ॥”

विचारों में चाहे विरोधाभास हो, आस्थामें चाहे विभिन्नताए हो परन्तु मनुष्य को ऐसी वाणी बोलनी चाहिए कि बात के महत्व का पता चले ।

किसी ने सही कहा है कि अहं को छोड़कर मधुरता से सुवचन बोलें जाएँ तो जीवन का सच्चा सुख मिलता है । कभी अहंकार में तो, कभी क्रोध में और आवेश में कटुवाणी बोलकर हम अपनी वाणी को तो दूषित करते ही हैं, सामने वाले को कष्ट पहुँचाकर अपने लिए पाप भी बटोरते हैं, जो कि हमें शक्तिहीन ही बनाता है ।

किसी भी क्षेत्र में सफलता पाने के लिए व्यक्ति के व्यक्तित्व की निर्णायक की भूमिका होती है और व्यक्तित्व विकास के लिए भाषा का बहुत महत्व होता है, परन्तु इसके साथ-साथ वाणी की मधुरता भी उतनी ही आवश्यक है । बड़ों से हमेशा सुनते आएँ हैं जिससे मनुष्य के स्वभाव का अंदाजा होता है । ईश्वर ने हमें धरती पर प्रेम फैलाने हेतु भेजा है और यही हर धर्म का सन्देश है ॥ प्रेम की तो अजीब ही लीला है, प्रभु के अनुसार तो स्नेह बाँटने से प्रेम बढ़ता है और इससे स्वयं प्रभु खुश होते हैं तो अपने फरिश्तों से कहते हैं कि मैं उक्त मनुष्यों से प्रेम करता हूँ, तुम भी उससे प्रेम करो और पूरे ब्रह्माण्ड में हर जीव तक यह खबर फैला दो जिस तक भी यह सन्देश पहुँचे वह सब भी उस उक्त मनुष्य से प्रेम करें और इस तरह यह सिलसिला बढ़ता चला जाता है । किन्तु कुछ लोग अपने अहंकार की तुष्टि के लिए अपनी वाणी का दुरुपयोग करते हैं,

जिससे झगड़ों की शुरुआत हो जाती है | अगर आप आए दिन होने वाले झगड़ों का विश्लेषण करें तो पता लगेगा कि छोटी-छोटी बातों पर बड़े-बड़े झगड़ों का विश्लेषण करें तो पता लगेगा कि छोटी-छोटी बातों पर बड़े-बड़े झगड़ों का सिलसिला शुरु होता है और असल जड़ कटु वाणी ही होती है |

इसलिए अगर आप दूसरों तक अपना सन्देश पहुँचाना चाहते हैं तो कटु वाणी का त्याग करके मधुर वाणी का प्रयोग करे |

“ऐसी वाणी बोलिए, मनका आपा खोए | औरन को शीतल करे, आपहुं शीतल होय ||”

जिस मनुष्य के वाक्यों में कठोरता है उससे लोग उत्तेजित हो जाते हैं | ऐसी अनर्थकारी वाणी न बोलें | इस जगत को अपने मधुर वाणी से वश में किया जाता सकता है |

मनुष्य की सफलता में जहाँ अनेक बातों का महत्व है, वहाँ मधुर भाषण, मीठी बोली का भी स्थान है | संसार का यह नियम है कि जो जैसा देता है वो वैसा ही पाटा है; इसी तरह मगर हम सबसे अच्छी तरह से बात करें तो सब हमसे भी अच्छे से ही बात करेंगे | जो मीठे बोल-बोलता है उसी के साथ सब रहना पसंद करते हैं और उनका आदर सम्मान करते हैं | अपनी मधुरता के कारण ही कोयल सबका प्यार मिलता है और कौए को दुत्कार | किसी भी व्यक्ति के व्यक्तित्व की पहचान उसकी बोलि से की जा सकती है क्योंकि बोली की गरिमा मनुष्य के भावों को प्रकट करती है |

अतः हमें ऐसी वाणी बोल्स्नी चाहिए जिससे हम अपने प्रति दूसरे के मन में प्रेम भाव उत्पन्न कर सकें |

किसी भी क्षेत्र में सफलता पाने के लिए व्यक्ति के व्यक्तित्व को निर्णायक भूमिका होती है व्यक्तित्व विकास के लिए भाषा के साथ-साथ वाणी की मधुरता भी आवश्यक है | वाणी ही है जिसे किसी भी मनुष्य के अवभाव का अंदाजा हो जाता है | विचारों मनचाहे विरोधाभास हो, आस्था में चाहे विभिन्नताएँ हो परन्तु मनुष्य को ऐसी वाणी बोलनी चाहिए कि बात के महत्व का पता चल सके |
